

SPEAKER SHANAHAN SUBJECT OF ATTACK BY HOUSE MEMBERS

Near Riot Last Night Over Appropriation for Brundage

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 12.—The senate tonight passed 34 to 4, the house bill appropriating $225,000 for purchase of Camp Grant for the use of the national guard. It now goes to the governor who will sign it.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 12.—Pandemonium reigned in the house of representatives tonight and Speaker Shanahan was the object of verbal attack by many members when the administration met defeat on a parliamentary question.

The fracas was caused by consideration of the Barbour senett bill to appropriate $75,000 to Attorney General Brundage for prosecution of civil suits against Governor Small and other former state treasurers.

The bill had nearly failed of passage, according to The Associated Press correspondent's roll call, when Representative Smejkal, Republican, Chicago, moved that further consideration be postponed. As the house clerk had not announced the result this Smejkal motion was in accordance with the rules.

Administration leaders moved to table the Smejkal motion and it too was failing according to the private count, when Representative Frank McCarthy, Republican, Elgin, changed his vote to postpone consideration of a vote to table the Smejkal motion, and gave notice that on the next legislative day—tomorrow—he would move to reconsider the vote on the Smejkal motion. This also was in accordance with the rules as the clerk had not announced the result.

Representatives Brown, Democrat, Ottawa; Scholes, Peoria, administration floor leader and others promptly protested and declared both motions by McCarthy and Smejkal were out of order, and that they were entitled to know the official counts on both as well as on passage of the bill. The speaker ruled that the proceedings were proper and thereupon shouts came from all over the chamber that Mr. Shanahan was blocking the will of the majority.

Through the tumult which lasted several minutes, Speaker Shanahan rapped his gavel, refusing to speak until all members had quieted down and taken their seats. Then he explained the order of the proceedings and said nothing had been done which was not according to the rules.

"The speaker's trying to pull a brace game," shouted Representative Brown, "and I'm not going to let him get away with it."

Other members likewise declared they had not received a square deal to which Mr. Shanahan replied that they had.

"I gave every one a square deal," declared the speaker, "and I'll not be used by any man or any official. When I leave here I'm going to tell the public that I treated everyone on the floor squarely."

"You may pull this stuff on new members, but you can't pull it on me," retorted Mr. Brown, amid cheers from the galleries and floor.

The speaker put an end to the trouble for the night by recognizing Mr. Smejkal, who called up another bill on third reading.

There will be a recrudescence of the friction tomorrow when Representative McCarthy asks action on his motion to reconsider the vote on the motion to postpone consideration. Under the rules he does not have to proceed until the night session.

On the roll call on the Barbour bill the vote was 55 yeas and 47 nays, according to the report count with 19 members voting present. Twenty members who were in the chamber or about the state house while the roll was being called, "ducked."

Official Roll Call Guarded

The official roll call was guarded by the house clerk the speaker having announced it would not be made public until disposal of the McCarthy motion. He voted for the bill.

The majority of the Democrats either voted against the appropriation or answered "present."

Preceding the vote, there was extensive debate, with Scholes and Brown leading the opposites. The latter declared it was time to "call a halt to these persecutions, for that's what they are, not prosecutions." He said the attorney general "is not the kind of man" to be behind the civil suits, but that the official is forced by a huge political combine to go into court against the chief executive.

Speeches in behalf of the bill were made by Representative Castle, Republican, Barrington; Gibson, Republican, Chicago and Weiss, Republican, Waukegan. They asserted it was well worth $75,000 if the state could recover the interest on state funds alleged to have been taken by the former treasurers.

Before the Barbour bill was called there also was long debate

WOULD MAKE U. S. COTTON STANDARDS BASIS FOR WORLD

Agreement Reached in Conference at Washington Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—The international cotton conference reached an agreement today for the adoption of the United States official cotton standards as the basis for the world cotton trade. Signature of the agreement was withheld pending confirmation by cable from the various foreign cotton exchanges.

The conference adjourned until June 18 to await replies to the recommendations of the foreign delegates that the United States standards and other questions agreed upon be adopted and their signatures placed on the documents.

The conference was called by Secretary Wallace at the request of the British cotton association which desired to present their views on the new convention standards law before regulations for its enforcement finally were adopted. The new law provides that all sales and shipments of American cotton in interstate and foreign commerce must be in accordance with the United States official cotton standards. Hereafter much of the American cotton sold abroad has been on Liverpool standards.

BOILERS BOUGHT AT $4,000 WERE SOLD TO BOARD FOR $7,500

Engineer So Testifies at the Trial of Fred Lundin

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 12.—Andrew W. Woodman, a consulting engineer, testified today at the trial of Fred Lundin and 20 co-defendants charged with defrauding the board of education of $1,000,000, that he had sold boilers to the Fitzgerald Boiler Works for $4,000 each which later were sold to the board for $7,500 each.

Thomas Fitzgerald, president of the Fitzgerald Boiler Works, who is alleged to have made the sale to the board, is one of the defendants in the conspiracy case. According to board records the boilers, 24 in number, cost the board $9,757 each installed.

Woodman testified that the company he represented at the time of the sale had purchased the boilers from the Emergency Fleet corporation for $2,750 each, reselling them to the boiler works. He said that he would have sold the boilers to the board of education at the same price that he sold them to Fitzgerald had he been requested by the board to submit price quotations.

STRIKE CLOUDS MELT INTO AIR

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 12.—Street strike clouds which have threatened Chicagoans for more than two weeks while employees repeated their demands for increased pay and company officials declared this impossible under present revenues, melted into thin air today when both sides agreed to arbitration at a joint conference engineered by Mayor William E. ## COMPANY CLOSE DOWN FOUR PLANTS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 12.—The American Cotton Oil company announced today that it decided to close temporarily its fourteen crushing mills in southern states. The company said in a statement that the mills would be closed "pending such time as the conditions in the cotton industry had so far improved as to justify the company in operating."

For similar reasons the company is arranging for the closing of their oil and fertilizer plants at Jretna, Louisiana.

before packed galleries on a senate bill to compel women to serve as jurors. Representative Brown moved to strike the enacting clause, and his motion carried 100 to 43 despite a plea by Mrs. Lottie O'Neill, Republican, Downers Grove, that the legislature do something at this session for the benefit of women.

The chief objection to the bill as voiced by several representatives was that a jury is not a fit place for a woman to be especially when certain kinds of testimony are entered upon the records.

BRITISH EFFORTS AS CONCILIATOR ARE UNAVAILING

Unable to Get France and Germany Into Any Agreement

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, June 12.—There is no sign tonight that the British efforts to act the part of conciliator between France and Germany have yet met with success. There was no further meeting of the British cabinet today, but diplomatic pourparlers were continued.

"Amnesty in the Ruhr" is the phrase met with in the press of London, and it is believed that the British effort is to persuade the French government to get back to the original idea of civil as opposed to military occupation of the Ruhr as the only basis upon which England could again join France and Belgium in a joint note seeking to have Germany abandon passive resistance.

The British government never acquiesced in the military occupation of the Ruhr. The idea is that amnesty in the Ruhr might lead to abandonment of resistance, but the difficulty is that Premier Poincare by dropping his military measures would be admitting failure of the occupation to achieve the desired results. If this difficulty could be surmounted it is thought it might be easier to reach an allied conference, including Germany. The suggestion is made by some of the British papers that the impasse presents an excellent opportunity for intervention by Washington.

GUESSING BY FRIENDS BRINGS OUT MARRIAGE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 12.—Good guessing by friends caused the announcement here today of the marriage of former Senator Richard F. Pettigrew, 75, of Sioux Falls, S. D., to Mrs. Roberta Smith, of this city. Mrs. Pettigrew made the announcement because "friends talked and surmised too much."

When they decided to marry last February they slipped away to Egypt on their honeymoon, returning only recently she said. Senator Pettigrew returned to Sioux Falls and Mrs. Pettigrew opened her home here. "So long as they're talking so much I guess we might as well tell it," she said.

WILL CONTINUE PROBE OF RIOT

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 12.—Continuation of the Herrin riot investigation was voted 4 to 3, by the house committee appointed for that purpose this afternoon contingent upon the passage of a bill extending the committee's life and appropriating $2,500 for expenses. Chairman McCarthy and Representatives Igoe, Pierce and Rice voted for continuing and Phillips, Curran and Flagg opposed it.

The committee indicated that an attempt will be made to get Hugh Willis, of the mine workers union at Herrin and two policemen to testify outside of Williamson county, and then to bring indictments for perjury against their testimony. If the bill passes and the committee continues, its next report will be made in December.

OKLAHOMA CITY READY FOR FLOOD

(By The Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 12.—Oklahoma City tonight was preparing for the highest water of the year as a flood crest swelled down the North Canadian river from the western part of the state. Weather bureau officials said it was predicted the stream would go to a foot higher here than it did several weeks ago when the Walnut Grove section was flooded and 1,000 persons were made homeless in lowlands. The crest is expected by Friday.

Aurora Man Reappears Missing Since April 29

(By The Associated Press)
AURORA, Ill., June 12.—Warren J. Lincoln, Aurora lawyer and horticulturalist who disappeared from his home near here April 29 under conditions pointing to murder, returned here today with Sheriff W. E. Orr and told a story of kidnapping, "dope" rings and smuggling that led from Chicago to New York City. His wife against whom Lincoln had instituted divorce proceedings had a leading part in his kidnapping, according to Lincoln's story, and Kane county authorities have asked Chicago police to search for the woman. For more than three weeks before he disappeared according to the story Lincoln told Sheriff Orr, two strangers had been shadowing him about his twenty acre farm and greenhouse and about a week before he was kidnapped, when he was in the greenhouse after dark to see that night, the two men stepped from behind boxes and, "flashing stars" told him they were revenue men and wanted him for "dope" peddling.

"Then they said if I would give them money they would let me off and, thinking that I could gain time so that I could have them arrested, I said I would pay them," Lincoln continued.

Later Lincoln said he feared if he had them arrested they might harm him and so when they came several nights later he gave them $100, adding another $100 to "these several nights later."

"Finally I determined to have them arrested," Lincoln said, "and the Sunday night I disappeared I talked to Captain Grass in Aurora about them. Then I went to the Rialto Theater and returned home going almost directly to bed. I was hardly asleep when I heard a noise on the porch and looked up just in time to get a blow from a fist of a man on my nose. I jerked back and when the men stepped thru the open window into my room I knocked him down jumped out on the porch and ran toward the greenhouse. A man beside the house grabbed my night shirt but I tore away and ran into the greenhouse where another man knocked me unconscious.

"When I came to, I was lying on a flower bed in the greenhouse and my wife was standing there, wiping the blood from my nose. They took me to an automobile and started toward Geneva, blindfolding me after they passed thru there."

After traveling for hours, Lincoln said, during which he heard heavy traffic and judged he was in Chicago, he walked down several steps into a basement apartment and there they took the blindfold off. He was held prisoner in this apartment for more than three weeks, he said, his wife visiting him almost every day.

He judged from what he heard and observed, Lincoln said, that this apartment was the headquarters of a drug ring and later a man called "Sid" asked him if he didn't want to become one of their men. Lincoln said he agreed to this and "Sid" said he would go to France where they had the gang's source of supplies. Blindfolding him again the man took him to the LaSalle street station in Chicago. There they purchased tickets for Baltimore, Lincoln said, but when they arrived at Buffalo he managed to escape while "Sid" was dozing. He made his way on to New York City where he found friends and wrote his brother, Edward Lincoln in Aurora for funds to return home. His brother admitted today that he had received the letter but said he didn't want any more publicity.

FRENCH OFFICIALS MOVE TO STOP NIGHT ATTACKS BY GERMANS

Believe That Organized Effort Has Been Launched

(By The Associated Press)
DUESSELDORF, June 12.—The killing of three French soldiers—one in Gelsenkirchen and two in Dortmund—within the last few days, has convinced French military authorities that an organized effort has been launched by the Germans to carry on night attacks against the forces of occupation. Hence drastic measures have been taken against the two municipalities concerned.

It was one of these measures—the restriction of street traffic after 9 o'clock in the evening—that led to the shooting of nine Germans Sunday night when a French patrol was compelled to fire upon them because its warning to clear the streets was disregarded.

Six of the Germans died from wounds, it is said. In addition to arresting three German officials, who are to be held as hostages, it was announced today by the French that no more permits would be granted Germans of Dortmund and Gelsenkirchen to leave the occupied area.

At Dortmund it was announced by the French today that thirty billion marks had been seized at the Reichsbank and another penalty in connection with the killing of the two French non-commissioned officers Saturday night.

U. S. GOVERNMENT IS ADHERING TO COURT DECISION

No Medicinal Liquor Can be Used for Beverage Purposes

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—Further evidence of the United States government's intention to adhere strictly to the supreme court's construction of the prohibition law with respect to liquor aboard ships in American waters was given today in a ruling by the public health service forbidding the use of "medicinal" liquor for beverage purposes.

Given a share in the administration of the Volstead act under the recently issued treasury regulations carrying out the court's decision health service officials ordered its physicians in all ports to deny permits for release of liquor for other than legitimate medical purposes.

The treasury accepted the decision as its policy and henceforth it was declared, regardless of circumstances, no circumvention of the hard and fast ban on beverage liquor will be allowed within territorial waters of the United States.

While the treasury thru the public health service was drawing the lines tighter about the use of liquor aboard foreign ships in American waters an administration spokesman at the white house asserted he did not believe that congress ever intended the government should be confronted with a situation such as it now faces. The official's statement was accepted generally as forecasting that request might be made when congress convenes in December for some change in the dry law that would permit the government to extricate itself from the situation.

Unless congress provides relief some officials hold that it can while others take the contrary view the president was said to believe there was no other course but to enforce the statutes as interpreted by the court.

Nothing came from any diplomatic quarter here to indicate that any of the foreign governments was considering further steps in efforts to get relief for its nationals. This caused some treasury officials to believe that such moves as may be made hereafter if any, would be by foreign ship owners.

Word came to the treasury during the day that some ship lines already had made plans for storing liquor supplies at ports of call nearby to their American destinations.

FOREIGN VESSELS MAY BE PERMITTED TO CARRY LIQUOR

Could Bring it Under Seal Under Certain Provisions

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—The United States government is understood to be willing to permit foreign vessels to bring sealed liquor supplies into American ports provided an international agreement is reached to extend the search and seizure limit to 12 miles.

Ambassador Jusserand of France had a lengthy conference today with Secretary Hughes who had requested his presence at the state department. No statement was made afterward by either party to the conference as to what had been discussed but the conversation is said to have dealt solely with the situation growing out of the supreme court ban on spirit liquor within American territorial waters.

It has not been disclosed how far the Washington government has gone in approaching foreign powers whose shipping is affected by the liquor ban with its new proposal nor has it yet been made clear how the administration would carry thru its part of such an agreement, if it were agreed to by other governments.

THOUSANDS DRIVEN FROM THEIR HOMES BY FLOODS IN TULSA

City in Grip of Worst Flood in its History Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)

Approximately 3,000 refugees have left the area between Tulsa and Sand Springs. The number of refugees from West Tulsa is estimated at 1,000. Motor boats under command of Sheriff Bob Sanford, patrolled the river from West Tulsa to Sand Springs tonight to guard against vandalism. T. F. Mullen, attorney for the utilities company had asked that the schedule of property be accepted as the determining factor in the decision by the commission on gas, electricity and heating rates. ## CHINESE BANDITS RELEASED FOREIGN CAPTIVES TUESDAY

Prisoners are Joyfully Greeted by Relatives and Friends

(By The Associated Press)
TSAOCHWANG, June 12.—Eight bearded, shabby men, four of them Americans, the last of the 77 foreign prisoners captured by Chinese bandits from the Shanghai-Peking Express near Suchow, May 6, arrived at the Tung Hsing mines near Tsaochwang this afternoon. They came down the mountainside from their prison on Paotzuku with an escort of outlaws. At the mine compound they saw the last of their brigand hosts and were joyfully greeted by crowds of relatives and friends who had gathered there to welcome them in expectation of their release.

Baths, clothing and food were awaiting them and on a railroad siding stood a special train, steam up ready to take them to Tsaochwang. It is expected that all or the majority of the eight will proceed to Shanghai tomorrow. The eight members of the ragged remnant of the original 27 are:

Americans: Major Roland W. Pinger, U. S. A.; Manila; Leon Friedman, Chicago and Shanghai; John B. Powell, Hannibal Missouri and Shanghai; Lee Solomon, San Francisco and Shanghai.

British: R. H. Rowlett, Birmingham, England and Tientsin; Fred Elias, Shanghai.

French: Emile Gensburger, Shanghai.

Italian: G. D. Musso, Rome, Italy and Shanghai.

The closing scene of the six and one half week's of negotiation for the prisoners release was staged with all the Chinese love of formality.

The stage was the village of Tsiho, fifteen miles from Tsaochwang and two miles down the mountainside from the prison, located in the Temple of the Clouds on the slope of Paotzuku. In the center of the group of bandit chieftains and Chinese officials, stood Roy Anderson, American, Tong familiar with Chinese customs and the chosen intermediary both of the outlaws and the Pekin government.

Armed with a commission as personal representative of Tsao Kun, powerful military leader and inspector general of Shantung province and possessing full authority from Tsao to put up the guarantees demanded by the brigands Anderson opened the final session.

In accordance with ancient Chinese custom Anderson asked the bandits grouped about him to nominate their "elder brother" or spokesman, with power to act.

In reply to the outlaws demands for foreign guarantee of immunity from punishment and other terms if the captives were released, Anderson explained that this would be possible only if the foreign powers took over the government of China a course which he emphasized the Brigand chieftains themselves desired.

General Chen Tiao-Yuan representing the military governor of Shantung read a document which recited the enrollment of 2,000 outlaws in the Chinese army, the payment to each of $20 and the distribution of uniforms. The formal agreement for the release of the prisoners was produced and signed by the two chief spokesmen, one Roy Scott Anderson of Atlanta, Ga. U. S. A. and the other the chosen "elder brother" of the brigands, Sun Kwei-Tau.

The Beggars Are Coming to Town

When the outdoors is calling these May days, there's nothing like a lively game of "Beggars' Tag" to fill you with pep. Any number of boys can play this game—the more the merrier.

After having counted out to see who is to be "it," draw a line on the ground about four feet from a wall or fence and parallel to it. The line should be ten feet long. From each end of the line draw a line to the wall or fence, so you have a rectangle, with the wall as one side. This is the beggars' "hangout," and there the "it" stands at the beginning of the game.

Clasping his hands together, "it" calls out, "Run, beggars, run!" Then he leaps from the "hangout" and chases the other players, trying to tag them without dividing his hands.

Players Tagged Help "It"
When a player is tagged he returns to the hangout with the "it," and they take hands, giving the "Run, beggars, run" cry before leaving the hangout to catch another player. The two must not let go of each other's hand. If they should let go while tagging some one, the one tagged may order the "its" to carry him back to the hangout. If they will not do so, he is not caught. The game may also be played by having the "its" split up in pairs, instead of having all of them together in one long line. This type of play makes a faster game and is more effective in tagging the uncaught players than the other form.

When the game is played either way it is more fun to have a rule that when the taggers' hands are unclasped they may be tagged by the men they are chasing, and any man so tagged must carry his captor back to the hangout, where he will be set free on arrival. If this rule is used, the boys being chased may try to make the beggars break their line by charging it from the rear.

(Next week The Fun Maker will tell about a game for three, "The Pendulum.")

According to statistics made public by weather observer Hall recently we have had rain on sixteen Saturdays out of a possible 22 this year. Both school children and merchants have been noticing how Saturday is old man wet weather's pet day. Mr. Hall's investigation was prompted by a question from one of the local merchants.

Each month and the number of wet week-ends are as follows: January, rained every Saturday; February, rained every Saturday; March, rained three out of five; April, rained three Saturdays out of four; May had a fifty-fifty break with two fair and two rainy. So far this month we have had two Saturdays, both have been rainy.

The Merchants, remembering that it's rain that makes the crops grow, do not feel as bad as they might if this were a purely industrial community.

PHI ALPHA BANQUET HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

78th Anniversary Observed by Illinois College Society—G. W. Govert Starts Movement for Society Hall

The 78th anniversary and love feast of the Phi Alpha society of Illinois college was enjoyed last evening at the community rooms of the Grace M. E. church. A fine bill of fare was admirably served by attractive young ladies after an invocation by Rev. Thomas Smith, D. D.

President Harry Gunn of the society called the meeting to order and spoke of the objects of the gathering and work of the society. A stanza of the old Phi Alpha song was sung, and then George W. Govert of Quincy was introduced as toastmaster and performed the duties of his position in an excellent manner.

As this occasion was a gathering for a love feast and generally good time no sentiments were proposed by the various speakers but each spoke as suited him best and from the heart all breathing a spirit of devotion to the society. Frank Collins favored the meeting with a piano solo and Prof. Kritch, an honorary member, rendered a violin solo accompanied by Mr. Collins and each received an enthusiastic encore.

The speakers were Rev. Charles M. Eames who told something of his missionary work in China; Robert W. Nesmith, Frank W. Rucker, Charles R. Grun, the incoming president who gave good promise of the coming year's work; E. Bentley Hamilton, father of the Alumni Quarterly; Prof. W. H. Stevenson of the faculty of Iowa Agricultural college; Rev. Arthur W. Rider, D. D., of Los Angeles; Judge Edward Doocoy of Pittsfield; W. D. Wood, Jacksonville; Judge Carl Epier of Quincy; J. P. Lippincott, and Henry S. Stevenson, the oldest resident member, 1862; Thomas Smith and S. W. Nichols.

"Timing Long Distance Telephone Calls"

How does the telephone company time a long distance call? The method is simple and accurate.

The operator does not look at a clock; she might easily misread the clock. She has a ticket on which the details of the call are written. When the conversation starts, she slips the ticket into a machine called a "calculagraph," which automatically stamps on the back the correct time to a fraction of a minute.

When the conversation is finished, the calculagraph again stamps the ticket in a way which shows directly the time which has elapsed since the first stamping.

The calculagraph is carefully inspected three times daily in order to see that it is in perfect working condition.

The use of this mechanical device insures accuracy in the timing of long distance calls.

$240,000,000 FOR IMPROVING ELECTRIC LINES THIS YEAR

Chicago, (AP)—Electric railways in the United States will spend the enormous sum of $240,000,000 for new equipment and plant facilities during 1923, according to a survey of expansion programs just announced by the Illinois Commission on Public Utilities.

This will be an addition to the large normal expenditures which must always be made for materials and supplies necessary to the continuous operation of the properties of city and inter-urban lines.

These proposed expenditures are about 60 per cent greater than those of 1922, the commission's statement says, the 1922 expenditures totalling $151,000,000.

300,000 FAMILIES MOVE EVERY YEAR IN CHICAGO

Chicago, (AP)—About 1,285,000 people change their dwelling places in this city every year, according to statistics compiled by the People's Gas, Light and Coke Company. These totals are reached by figuring 4-14 members to a family, and the records show that something more than 300,000 families move annually.

The gas company claims it knows because it must turn off and turn on the gas in the dwellings as old tenants move out and new ones come in. The statistics show that more people move on May 1, Chicago's big moving day, than all other times of the year combined. They show that while about 42 percent of Chicago's total population of over 2,800,000 moves yearly, from 25 to 27 per cent moves on May 1, and about 12 per cent on October 1, Chicago's other big moving day.

GRANDMA—NOT 31

MRS. ERNEST RAYNER

By NEA Service
Seattle.—Looks as young as one of this season's debutantes, but she has two bouncing grandchildren to her credit! Friends of Mrs. Ernest Rayner, here, claim for her the laurels of grand champion youngest grandmother of the country!

Six days before her 31st birthday, Mrs. Rayner welcomed her first grandchild, Claude Ruttenburg, Jr. One year after that the second grandchild came.

This record, friends maintain, better the mark of Mrs. Charles Bryan, who claimed the national "championship" when she was a grandmother at 31.

Mrs. Rayner's mother, Mrs. Alex Penor, of Bremerton, Wash., is but 48 years old herself, and as great-grandmothers go, she must not be overlooked.

"Early marriages are almost hereditary in our family," says the new champ. She married when 14. "I believe in them. But after all, the success in marriage rests with husband and wife. No, I don't feel any older for being a grandmother."

Until a younger grandma is found, Mrs. Rayner holds the title.

SEES MENACE IN CRUSHING INDIVIDUALITY OF WORKERS

Montreal, (AP)—The individual is the world's biggest problem, Robert B. Folf, New York engineer and industrialist, declared in an address on "Management Engineering in the Paper Industry" at the spring meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

"In no other period of the world's history has the group spirit found such material expression as in this twentieth-century development of corporate industry," said Mr. Folf, who was a member of the Hoover Committee on Elimination of Waste in Industry of the Federated American Engineering Societies.

"In the past men have combined into groups for productive purposes, but never before have we seen such grouping of groups and these larger groups into still larger corporate units, and the startling fact is that most of this has taken place within the lifetime of the men who are still in active charge of industry."

"What is the meaning of it all, and what is to become of the individual men in the process? This, I believe to be the most momentous problem confronting modern civilization, for if it is not solved, civilization as now constituted cannot last. To crush out the individuality of the workman is fatal to human progress and it is also fatal to destroy the individuality of our manufacturing or producing units."

"The individual must be understood, and the whole problem of industry resolves itself into finding out how to enable the unit individual, the man, to become conscious of his relationship to the all-including group individual, the plant."

"The secret seems to lie in stimulating group consciousness within the organic whole of the plant on the one hand, and the man on the other, and the immediate need seems to be for the education of foremen to intelligently direct the groups."

"The recorded results of this new effort will act again as a fresh stimulus, so that continuous progress in both knowledge of process and skill in the use of his knowledge is bound to follow."

In 365 days she produced 28,236 pounds of milk containing 1,004.62 pounds of butterfat, according to official announcement from the Holstein Association of America. This fat production is equal to 1,255.77 pounds of butter.

WORLD'S SMALLEST STATE UNITES WITH SWITZERLAND

Geneva, (AP)—Situating between Switzerland and Austria is the little Principality of Liechtenstein, which enjoys an idyllic existence and is the smallest state in the world. With its 11,000 inhabitants, this tiny territory and the little Austrian province of Vorarlberg have now entered into a customs union with the Swiss Republic.

Prior to the war Liechtenstein, in spite of the strong antipathy of its people toward the Hapsburgs, was united with the Austrian monarchy by union of customs, post and currency.

During the war the diminutive principality, with its "armed power" of 12 field-watchmen remained neutral. In 1920 the Principality amalgamated postal administration with that of Switzerland, the postoffices in Liechtenstein differing from the Swiss postoffices only so far that they sell stamps with the portrait of the Prince. The Austrian crown was long ago replaced by the Swiss franc, so that the economic fusion of Liechtenstein into Switzerland is now complete.

NEWSPAPERS OF POLAND TO EXPAND SPORT PAGES

Warsaw, (AP)—Polish newspapers were requested to give more space to sporting events, both domestic and international, by the 700 delegates who attended the first Polish Sporting Congress here during April.

Sports, in connection with the improvement of military training for soldiers, were placed first in the agenda of the congress. Establishment of military sporting organizations with the civilian, were recommended in guiding the physical education of the Polish nation.

Football, which since the armistice has become almost the national game of Poland, was the subject of a keen discussion by the delegates. The military representatives favored intensifying the game, while delegates from the universities were inclined to the belief that it was excluding many other forms of sport which should be indulged in. A compromise was reached by deciding to foster swimming, the teaching of which in the schools will be made compulsory by an act of parliament.

Before adjournment, the delegates secured the promise of financial assistance from the government to defray the expenses of Polish athletes to the Paris Olympic next year.

MISS STEWART IS BRIDE OF H. L. MASON

Well Known People United in Impressive Home Ceremony.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stewart on Mound avenue, when their daughter, Miss Edith Leona Stewart, became the bride of Henry Lee Mason.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. P. Howell, pastor of First Baptist church, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruth Easton played Paderewski's Mene and Barcarolle from Hoffman, and Leon Stewart, brother of the bride, sang "I Love You Dear."

When the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were heard the bridal party came down the stairs. First came the flower girls, Nelle and Beulah Stewart, sisters of the bride, and Ester Mason, niece of the groom, making a pathway of rose petals.

They were followed by little Ruth Mason as ring bearer. Next came the bridesmaid, Miss Eva Mason, and the best man, Byron Stewart, followed by the bride and groom.

The ceremony was performed underneath a beautifully decorated arch, from the center of which was suspended a large wedding bell. The house was beautifully decorated for this wedding event, pink and white roses being used in charming profusion.

The bride's gown was of white crepe satin with georgette and pearl trimmings. She wore a veil of tulle with band of pearl trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaid's gown was of pink canton crepe and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. The flower girls and ring bearer were dressed in white organdie with rosebud trimming.

Following the ceremony congratulations were extended and a wedding supper was served. The cutting of the bride's cake of assorted much merit.

The bride is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stewart, well known residents of this city. She attended the public schools and graduated from the Jacksonville high school with the class of 1919. She is a young woman of pleasing personality and personal charm.

Mr. Mason is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason of South Webster avenue. He is also a graduate of the local high school and of Brown's Business college in this city, and is a young man of sterling worth and integrity. Both he and his bride are members of First Baptist church and active in various departments of church work.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason left on a late train for Chicago and Northampton. Upon their return they will begin housekeeping on Mound avenue, where the groom has a house already furnished. Their many friends unite in wishing them a happy wedded life.

FOUR ARRESTED IN RAIDS HERE TUESDAY
Police search Three Houses, Take Prisoners and Confiscate Moonshine—States Attorney Claims Positive Evidence of Illegal Sale of In Each Case.
Four persons were arrested and two and a half quarts of moonshine liquor were confiscated in raids here yesterday afternoon, which were conducted by the city police force under the direction of Chief Frank Kiloran and States Attorney Carl E. Robinson. Those arrested were charged with illegal selling of liquor and Attorney Robinson stated that there was in each case conclusive proof of sale.
The moonshine was found at the home of John Atterberry, 333 Broadway Alley. Two quarts of the stuff were concealed in the floor and a pint bottle was found on the floor. Atterberry and Sam Brown, colored, were arrested at the Broadway Alley place.
Police also raided the home of Bertha Day, 345 North Sandy street. No liquor was found, but Mrs. Day was arrested on a charge of illegal selling of liquor. The last raid was made on the home of Eugene Tross, 527 Sherman street. No liquor was found, the police searched the premises thoroughly. However, Tross was arrested on a similar charge to that of the others.
As the raids were made the prisoners were taken to the police station, where they were held until all had been arrested. They were then taken to the sheriff's office at the court house, where warrants were issued by county authorities on information filed by Chief Kiloran were read to them by Deputy Jones. The prisoners were then turned over to the sheriff's forces and the amount of their bond fixed at $900 each. All failed to give bond and were committed to the county jail to await a hearing before the next term of the county court.

Sam Brown, one of the prisoners asked for an explanation from the county officers. On being told that he was charged with illegal selling of liquor, he strenuously denied the charge, stating that he never sold any of the stuff or took a drink in all his life. He was told to tell his story to the judge when the opportunity came.

SPEAKS OF INDIAN MYSTERY AND LEGEND
Dr. Williamson is Lecturer Before Meeting of Phi Delta Sigma—Announces Names of Successful Applicants for Membership.
The lecture of Dr. Charles D. Williamson of the class of 1897, Illinois college, which was given before the honorary scholarship society of Phi Delta Sigma yesterday morning, was a revelation of the wonders of the Indian civilization of the great southwest. Dr. R. H. Lacey, head of the department of classical languages, presided at the meeting and introduced Dr. Williamson to a fair sized audience in the Whipple Museum Hall.
Dr. Lacey announced that the society was at present little more than a year old. Admission to membership is based solely on scholarship. Each year the two highest juniors and the seniors of highest scholarship are selected for membership. The seniors of the class of '23 who made the society are Miss Celestine Hemphill, Miss Kathleen Emory, Miss Lucy Catlin, and Mr. Max Shipley. The juniors who are chosen to membership in the society are Herman F. Englebach and Charles Ray Grunney.
Dr. Williamson in his lecture showed many entrancing views of the painted desert and the gorgeous scenery of the rock cliffs of the canyons in New Mexico and other parts of the Southwest. A picture which attracted considerable interest was a view of the Canyon De Chelly, in which are laid the scenes from Zane Gray's "Rainbow Trail."

The speaker related some curious legends of the Hopi Indians and showed the pictures of the absorbing snake dance. The chief snake priest is a graduate of an eastern university and has received a medical education. He has gone back to be the chief medicine man in his tribe because Uncle Sam, altho giving him a first class education, failed to provide him an opportunity to use it.
Portions of Dr. Williamson's lecture were given here in recent months before the Rotary club. The lecturer lives in Clairmont, Cal., and has devoted his summers for the past seven years to a study of Indian life and especially of the cliff dwellers and prehistoric remains of a past civilization.

Three Miles of Street Decorations Have Been Put Up—Ball Starts Tomorrow Afternoon.
Nothing that Colonel O. C. Smith can think of, nothing that his hard working committees, adjutant, assistants and everybody connected with William H. Rule Camp No. 96 can do has been left undone, so everything is set for a successful meeting.

Jacksonville has blossomed out in fine style, gala day dress, with a determination that the boys of '98 regard the 20th Annual Encampment as historic and the best that has ever been held in Illinois.
Tomorrow afternoon the ball will be started rolling on the lawn of the School for the Deaf, when the following program specially arranged by Colonel O. C. Smith in observance of the 25th Anniversary of the Spanish American War will be pulled off. This is not a soldiers program alone, or for ex-soldiers especially but for the public; everybody in Jacksonville is invited and will be made to feel welcome, and what is more the program will be well worth the time spent, as both Commander-in-Chief Entenza and Past Commander-in-Chief Carlstrom are men of national consequence as orators.

JACKSONVILLE CLUBS
TO HEAR ROBT. C. FAY

Robert C. Fay, one of the foremost marketing counselors in the country, will be in Jacksonville Thursday and address a joint meeting of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs in the blue room of the Peacock Inn. The Kiwanians secured Mr. Fay for an address, and invited the Rotarians to enjoy it with them.

A luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock noon, followed by Mr. Fay's talk on "Selling Your City to the People." It is a powerful plea for more real selling inside the city gates.

As marketing counsel for many of America's great industries Mr. Fay comes in daily contact with the problems of market analysis, advertising and sales promotion, dealer problems and sales management. When he "talks business" he brings to his subject a wealth of material which comes under his daily observation—facts which have a real cash value to every business and professional man or woman.

"Talking Business" does not mean dry facts because the romance, the humor and the story of business folks is stranger than fiction and as entertaining as the people themselves who make up the daily life of a city, town or village.

Mr. Fay sees the great civic obligation which rests upon all of us and though he does not preach, his forceful messages have been termed business sermons and have inaugurated great movements of national and local importance.

CHICAGO & ALTON
SENDS ORDER FOR REBUILDING CARS

The Chicago & Alton has closed a contract with the Illinois Car company with plant at Hammond, Ind. for rebuilding 225 of the 42,000 series coal cars at an approximate cost of $150,000. These cars will be turned to the plant of that company at once. Delivery is promised early in the fall. The Alton has been considering bids for some time for the rebuilding of a thousand coal cars and the first group contract has just been let.

It is expected that others will be closed shortly as it is very important that these cars be made ready by the opening of the fall coal trade when a famine in such equipment develops. The 42,000 series are the last of the steel coal cars to be purchased by the Alton. They have been in steady service for more than ten years. They will be given new sides and new bottoms as their condition requires and also what other overhauling may be needed. Originally these cars cost less than $2,000 each. Now, it costs nearly $1,000 to rebuild them, indicating the changes in the cost of materials and in labor in less than two decades.

THE JACORANDA TREE
By Ida Scott Taylor

I wonder if you've ever seen
A jacoranda tree:
If not, you've missed a sight serene
And beautiful to see;
It looks so dignified and brave,
In all its stately height,
And when its graceful branches wave
It is a lovely sight.

But you should see it when it blooms
In festival array,
And flaunts on high its azure plumes
In such a prideful way;
Its blossoms are as fresh as youth,
Blue as a baby's eyes,
They are the very soul of truth,
A sermon in disguise.

It stands so sturdy and erect,
So grand and superfluous,
I'd like to be as circumspect
As this brave tree of mine;
If only everyone would strike
This attitude with me,
Perhaps in time we'd all be like
The jacoranda tree.

HORNSBY DIVORCE UNDER ADVISEMENT

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—The divorce suit of Mrs. Sarah E. Hornsby against Rogers Hornsby, champion batsman of the National League last season, was taken under advisement by Circuit Judge Hogan in domestic relations court after a hearing this afternoon which lasted barely five minutes.

At the conclusion of the hearing, Judge Hogan announced the divorce was granted and that custody of Rogers, Jr., two and one-half years of age, would be awarded to Mrs. Hornsby but he immediately rescinded it by saying the decision had been announced inadvertently and that it must follow the rules of the court which provides that no decree shall be granted in less than 10 days after filing of the petition. Mrs. Hornsby filed her suit late yesterday.

The Cardinals' second baseman did not contest the suit. Mrs. Hornsby wept as she testified. She asserted Hornsby had been quarrelsome, had indicated to her that he no longer cared for her, that he had not provided a proper home for her and that he had left her several times after quarrels.

A satisfactory settlement as to alimony has been made it was announced.

CARDINALS GET AN EVEN BREAK

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—St. Louis gained an even break of the series with Brooklyn by winning today's game, 5 to 4. The visitors tied it in the eighth, but singles by Sherdel and Toporcer, Johnston's error and Smith's sacrifice in the ninth inning gave the Cardinals the needed tally. The score:

FRYMAN HURLS HIS FIRST FULL GAME

Howard Fryman, pitcher for the Indians last season, hurled his first full game for Decatur against Danville Monday. Except in the third inning when Danville made five of their 10 hits and scored four of their five runs, Fryman had the opposing batters at his mercy, striking out six of them. The final score was 9 to 5. Now that the Alsey boy has gone a full game we look for him to burn up that old Three Eye for the remainder of the season if he gets a chance to work. That is what Fryman needs and plenty of it to bring him to his best form.

BROOKLYN CHILDREN WILL PICNIC TODAY

BROWNS MAKE ONLY FOUR HITS, BUT WIN

Home Run, Triple, Double and Single Score Four Runs—Washington Gets Eight but Score Only One Run

WASHINGTON, June 12.—St. Louis took the odd game of the series from Washington today, 3 to 1. The visitors got only three scattered hits off Johnson, a home run by Tobin, a triple by Gerber and a double by Danforth. Danforth was invincible until the ninth when he was replaced by Pruett after Harris' single, Ruel's double, a pass to Gharrity and a balk gave the locals their run with two out.

FOUR AMERICANS ELIMINATED AT TROON

TROON, Scotland, June 12.—When the roll is called on the first tee of the old Troon course Thursday, starting of the British open championships four Americans golfers who came to Scotland to compete in that tournament will be missing. The unhappy four are General Sarazen, American open champion; Jim Barnes, who formerly held that title; T. D. Armour of New York, and Charles Hoffner, of Philadelphia. These players forfeited the opportunity to enter the contest for the title when they were defeated in the first and second rounds of the qualifying competition.

Six Americans have qualified. Three of them escaped the fate of failures by just one stroke. One of this trio was Walter Hagan, the present title holder who squeezed into the tie for last place with 159 strokes only by courageous and successful playing when all seemed lost.

The other two Americans who scored 159 were Leo Diegel of Washington, and Frank W. Clarke of Asheville, N. C.

McDonald Smith of California led all the overseas competitors with a score of 152. John Farrell of New York put himself among the insiders with 157 and George Auldach of Boston, with 155. Joe Kirkwood, the Australian champion, who now resides in the United States, repeated his Monday of 76 and tied McDonald's score of 152.

CAPPS TEAM BEATS POST OFFICE MEN

The Capps factory team won the Twilight league game from the Post Office aggregation yesterday evening by a score of 4 to 3. This is the first game the post office men have lost in the six they have played during the season.

It was an extra inning game, as both teams were well matched and the score was tied in the fifth. In the sixth inning the Capps team scored and closed the contest.

Batteries for Capps were Towers and Smith, and for the Post Office White and Kennedy.

GOES TO CALIFORNIA
Miss Esther Vasey has resigned her position at Norbury Sanitarium and will leave Saturday for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will make her home.

CUBS MAKE CLEAN SWEEP WITH BRAVES

Hack Miller's Great Batting Wins for His Team—Drives in Five Runs and Scores Two Himself

CHICAGO, June 12.—Chicago made a clean sweep of the series with Boston today by taking the final game 12 to 11, and running its string of consecutive victories to seven.

"Hack" Miller's great batting was largely responsible for the Cubs' victory as he drove in seven runs. In the fifth his first home run tied the score as three runners scored in front of him. On the next trip he drove in another ahead of his second homer. The visitors rallied in the ninth when Keen blew up and Fussell was sent to stop the scoring.

REGULAR MILKING PERIODS ON FARM

Should be Adhered to as Closely as Possible in Busy Season — Flies Responsible for Low Yield in Summer.

URBANA — Regular milking periods should be adhered to as closely as possible during the busy farming season, as any marked change in the regular management of dairy cattle usually results in decreased milk and butterfat production, according to the dairy department of the University of Illinois. A bulletin has been prepared for the guidance of dairy cattle owners during the summer months and the accompanying harvest period.

"Hot weather, flies and short pastures are among the conditions that must be met by the dairyman during the summer months, and it is not advisable to allow the dairy herd to run down in flesh," the bulletin states. "Too often this latter happens in late summer. The cows freshen in thin condition and will not produce as well or as efficiently as cows that freshen in good flesh.

"There are many dairymen who feed silage or grain, or both during the summer, and they say it pays," adds the bulletin. "It will pay even more next winter. The following grain mixture may be fed at the rate of one pound to every three and one-half pounds of milk produced a day, depending on the amount of milk produced and the condition of the cow: Corn or barley 5 parts; oats or bran, 2 parts; oil meal 1 part.

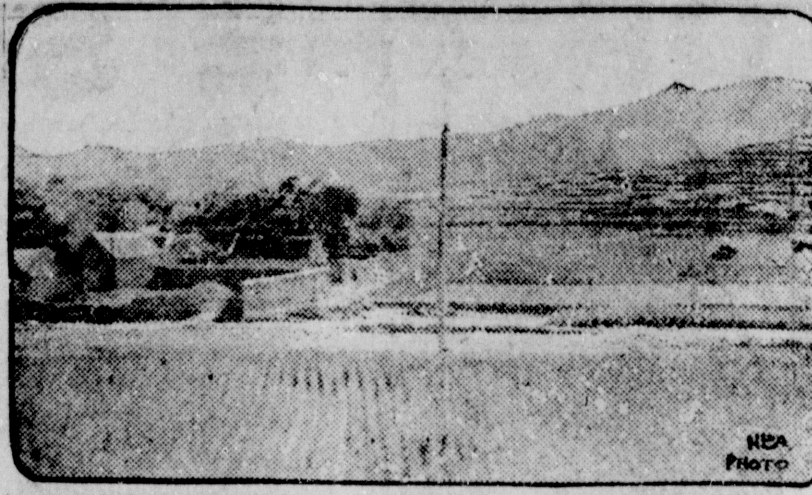

"Flies are responsible, in a large measure, for low milk yields in summer and this cattle in the fall. Cows should be protected from them as much as possible. One of the best means of eliminating the fly evil is to keep the cows stabled during the heat of the day in cool, darkened barns. Windows can be darkened by nailing building paper over them. Gunny sacks may be hung in the doorway in such manner that flies will be brushed from the cows' backs as they enter the barn. Manure should not be allowed to accumulate around the stables, as it is an ideal breeding place for flies. Powdered borax sifted over manure will aid in their control.

Some fly repellent mixtures are effective for a short time. A home made spray may be prepared as follows: Dissolve one-half pound of soap in a gallon of soft water heated to the boiling point, and with it combine two gallons of kerosene. Churn vigorously and add six gallons of water."

BRITISH GIRLS COMPETE IN CLOAK MODEL CONTEST

London — A new craze has seized the young women of England. They want to become fashion mannequins and share the niche of popularity with musical-comedy favorites.

A London newspaper is conducting a mannequin contest in conjunction with England's most fashionable dressmaking establishment, and has drawn applicants from all parts of the British Isles. Those aspiring to become fashion models are required to send in their photographs, physical measurements, description of facial features, or details of any special qualifications they may possess.

The best London couturiers declare the mannequin of the future must possess brains as well as mere beauty and poise. In their opinion mere prettiness of face and grace of figure are no longer enough for the efficient display of their artistic creations.

Dress has become so elaborate, they say, and the struggle for originality so acute, that the girls on whom these creations are built up must cooperate intelligently in the work, and not content themselves merely with being exquisite lay figures.

ENGLISH INDULGE IN MOCKING AMERICA

LONDON.—Certain English newspapers seem to delight in poking fun at American customs and manners, and some of the London publications make more or less of a practice of parodying idiosyncrasies and habits of American tourists. This is especially true where American customs differ from the orthodox traits of the Englishman.

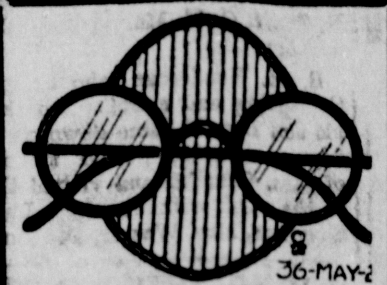

A London newspaper with a circulation of a million has featured the following paragraph regarding a "cultural revolution" which was taking place in the United States.

"Cuspidors are being removed from countless American drawing rooms. Chewing gum is being scraped off parlor chairs. Several million Americans spend hours daily in practicing the correct pronunciation of the words 'aunt,' 'clerk,' 'Derby,' and 'advertisement.'"

Then came the ironical information that "bootlegging is no longer the principal occupational of the cultured minds of America," and that much more time is being spent "in reading the social culture advertisements and learning how easy it is to misbehave unless one buys 'The Book of Good Manners.'"

The British public is told that a great wave of etiquette is sweeping America. "Half America's 110,000,000 people are now spending a large part of their time in watching the other half and seeing that they conform to the rules of social culture," says this satirical journal.

Patrons of restaurants are pictured as spending so much time watching one another that they Martin of Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Henderson of Springfield, James Roach and daughter Miss Anna of Jacksonville, Mrs. E. Graff, C. H. Martin and others of Jacksonville.

Mr. Henderson reports crops in Woodford county in a flourishing condition. Many acres of peas for the canery at Eureka will be harvested and delivered this week.

Farm improvements in Woodford county are in keeping with the high priced land. Hard roads are in course of construction in two parts of the county and when completed will link the college city with many parts of the state. On the night of May 31st the college students and citizens of Eureka celebrated the raising of the large endowment fund to put Eureka College on a sound financial basis. A huge bonfire on the campus near midnight was the closing feature of the celebration.

The children's services of the M. E. Sunday school were held in the M. E. church on Sunday evening and were attended by all church people of Concord.

Vacation Thrill
Of a Lifetime

Glacier National Park

The Low Cost of the Trip Will Surprise You

Up there in the Northern Rockies there are fifteen hundred square miles of breathing room—loafing space; great forests, sparkling streams, filmy waterfalls, exquisite mountain lakes, slow-moving glaciers, cloud-swept mountain peaks and myriads of many-hued wild flowers.

Go this summer and refresh your soul! To breathe the breezes, quickened by the glaciers, flavored by the mountains and streams and perfumed by the pines and flowers is an experience you never will forget. Where mountain sheep pose on the edge of space you will find mammoth rustic inns. Where the Blackfeet Indians pitch their tepees among the pointed peaks you'll find cozy Alpine chalets.

If you are a fisherman, there are trout to battle with. If you are a hiker, there are sky-line trails to follow. If you love to ride, mountain ponies will carry you along the Continental Divide, the Backbone of this Continent. If you like to row, there are waters to explore. If you prefer to camp, there are scores of ideal spots on the shores of glinting lakes. The chalets (little hotel villages in the mountains) are delightful tarrying places. More elaborate accommodations are provided at the inns.

The whole service scheme in Glacier blends completely with the outdoor idea. Follow the dictates of your fancy. Better go this summer. 'Twill do you a world of good!

Burlington service takes you direct. You can continue on to the Pacific Northwest and return via Yellowstone and Colorado, if you wish.

As this is National Travel-West Year, I suggest that you make reservations early and avoid the possibility of disappointment.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Taking advantage of the lack of public interest and the apparent absence of any effective buying support, professional speculators, decline launched a series of successful attacks on most of the list in today's stock market.
The selling pressure was most effective against the industrial stocks, many of which yielded one to three points, but rails, which had held firm earlier in the day yielded with the rest in the heavy selling of the last hour. The bear attacks were conducted in the face of several favorable developments including the placing of American smelting company on a $5 annual basis after a net dividend paying period of more than two years.

New low records for the year were made by more than a score of stocks including general asphalt common and preferred, Standard Oil of New Jersey, invincible Caddo, Skelly, Tidewater, Sinclair and White Oil producers and refiners, Pan Handle producing and refining, Simms Petroleum, Kelly Springfield, United Rubber, Lee, Godrich, Godyear and Amar ship and commerce.

United States government bonds, with the exception of treasury 4s,
also eased slightly.

The treasury's moved up 1-32 of a point.
